FOR THE 3rd YEAR THIS HIGHLY ANTICIPATED EVENT FOR THE COMMUNITY RETURNS TO LAKE WORTH BEACH!

The Venue at 1201 presents the 3rd Annual Holiday Artisan Festival!

[LAKE WORTH, FL, April 29th] — Local MC and showrunner, Jeanette Brown, in collaboration with the nonprofit CG Community Development and sponsor The Law Office of James Hogan, is once again welcoming the community to the Venue at 1201 (1201 S Federal Hwy, Lake Worth, FL) for the Holiday Artisan Festival. The event will be held on Saturday, December 2nd, from 10am until 3pm. The event is free, and open to the public.

The Holiday Artisan Festival is a full day of holiday fun for the whole family, all while shopping for local gifts! We fill the inside of the Venue at 1201 with an indoor market of local artisan vendors. Attendees can treat themselves to Common Grounds coffee and pop up bakery items at coffee window. The kids are welcome too! Bring them to the elf craft station inside or the kids game zone outside- and be on the lookout for the Grinch! You may get a chance to take a photo with him if he's feeling sweet.

Plus we'll be treated to live holiday entertainment and surprise pop-up performances throughout the day.

Jeanette Brown has been curating events with CG Community Development for over 8 years. Both hold the goal to impact the community through the arts and social entrepreneurship, and to connect, inspire, and educate. The Holiday Artisan Festival has consistently been one of the most biggest attended events of each year
